

NexaTech Solutions - Employee Benefits Guide

1. Health Insurance

Eligible full-time employees receive company-sponsored health insurance coverage according to the applicable benefits plan.

2. Professional Development

Employees may receive financial support for approved professional courses, certifications, and training programs related to their role.

3. Performance Bonus

Eligible employees may receive performance-based bonuses according to company performance, individual objectives, and applicable compensation guidelines.

4. Employee Assistance

The company provides access to employee support resources covering professional development and workplace assistance.

5. Benefits Eligibility

Specific benefit eligibility depends on employment type, length of service, and the terms of the applicable benefits plan.